The Illustrated London News

The dramatic first-person account of life inside an ultra-fundamentalist American religious sect, and one woman's courageous flight to freedom with her eight children. When she was eighteen years old, Carolyn Jessop was coerced into an arranged marriage with a total stranger: a man thirty-two years her senior. Merrill Jessop already had three wives. But arranged plural marriages were an integral part of Carolyn's heritage: She was born into and raised in the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (FLDS), the radical offshoot of the Mormon Church that had settled in small communities along the Arizona-Utah border. Over the next fifteen years, Carolyn had eight children and withstood her husband's psychological abuse and the watchful eyes of his other wives who were locked in a constant battle for supremacy. Carolyn's every move was dictated by her husband's whims. He decided where she lived and how her children would be treated. He controlled the money she earned as a school teacher. He chose when they had sex; Carolyn could only refuse at her own peril. For in the FLDS, a wife's compliance with her husband determined how much status both she and her children held in the family. Carolyn was miserable for years and wanted out, but she knew that if she tried to leave and got caught, her children would be taken away from her. No woman in the country had ever escaped from the FLDS and managed to get her children out, too. But in 2003, Carolyn chose freedom over fear and fled her home with her eight children. She had $20 to her name. Escape exposes a world tantamount to a prison camp, created by religious fanatics who, in the name of God, deprive their followers the right to make choices, force women to be totally subservient to men, and brainwash children in church-run schools. Against this background, Carolyn Jessop's flight takes on an extraordinary, inspiring power. Not only did she manage a daring escape from a brutal environment, she became the first woman ever granted full custody of her children in a contested suit involving the FLDS. And in 2006, her reports to the Utah attorney general on church abuses formed a crucial part of the case that led to the arrest of their notorious leader, Warren Jeffs.

Jewish Identities

This book traces the evolution of the Hong Kong 's popular culture, namely film, television and popular music (also known as Cantopop), which is knotted with the city 's geo-political, economic and social transformations. Under various historical contingencies and due to the city 's special geo-politics, these three major popular cultural forms have experienced various worlding processes and have generated border-crossing impact culturally and socially. The worlding processes are greatly associated the city 's nature as a reception and departure port to Sinophone migrants and populations of multiethnic and multicultural. Reaching beyond the "golden age" (1980s) of Hong Kong popular culture and afar from a film-centric cultural narration, this book, delineating from the dawn of the 20th century and following a chronological order, untangles how the nowadays popular "Hong Kong film", "Hong Kong TV" and "Cantopop" are derived from early-age Sinophone cultural heritage, re-shaped through cross-cultural hybridization and influenced by multiple political forces. Review of archives, existing literatures and corporation documents are supplemented with policy analysis and in-depth interviews to explore the centennial development of Hong Kong popular culture, which is by no means demise but at the juncture of critical transition.

"This book makes a decisive and controversial contribution to the history of musical modernism. Moricz radically but thoroughly scrutinizes concepts of Jewish identity, and in doing so re-orders our understanding of 'Jewish music' as an outgrowth of nationalist, racist and utopian ideologies. The scholarship is superior in every respect. Jewish Identities is destined to become a seminal work in the reception history of European musical modernism. An absolutely outstanding and intellectually brilliant work."—Harry White, author of The Keeper's Recital: Music and Cultural History in Ireland, 1770-1970

Geral John Pinault is one of North America's finest lyricists! His Seventy-eighth Guitar Songbook is loaded with incredibly moving love songs! Songs that will make you happy! Songs that will make you sad! He writes the lyrics first, and then he composes the music! This is opposite to the way that most modern-day lyricists do it, and that's why his songs are so romantically appealing and engaging! "The Best of Geral John Pinault's Love Songs - Book #78 - The Winds of Change Keep Blowing Through My Mind!" contains 20 brand new Pop-Country Songs plus two bonus songs arranged for Rhythm Guitar, with Chords for BOTH Left & Right-handed Players plus the Lyrics! These easy to sing and play songs are designed to help people with Dyslexia and other reading disorders and they will thrill every level of today's modern guitar player! Geral John doesn't set exact tempos but rather he makes it fun to establish your own tempo in each song with guidelines such as: MODERATELY! or EASY TEMPO! or UP-TEMPO BEAT or ROCKING BEAT! Geral John writes Pop-Country Music!! NOTE that he has produced the left-handed chords on the left-sided pages and the right-handed chords on the right-sided pages for each type of acoustic and acoustic-electric guitarist's individual needs! SONG TITLES: Girls Like Boys Who Like Girls! - You Can Run To The One Who Loves You! - Thunder And Lightning Enveloped The Skies! - It's All Good! It's Alright! - We're Rolling On Down The Line! - I'm Allergic To Life's Changes! - I've Been On My Own For Ever So Long! - The Winds Of Change Keep Blowing Through My Mind - Born In The Big City! - It's Time For Us To Roll On Out Of Here! - She Left Me Ever So Long Ago - I Know That He's Been Treating You Wrong! - Our Love Used To Be So Exciting! - Nobody Loves Me When I'm Down And Out - Hey Babe We Need A Little Getaway! - She's Just A Girl And I'm Just A Guy! - I've Climbed This Mountain To Gain A New View! - I Love What You Do Girl - I Really Do! - I Feel Like A Rolling Stone! - I've Got To Make It To The End Of The Line! - There's Too Much Trouble Going Down In Town! - We've Lost Our Love Of The Truth! He compels you the singer/guitarist to enable your audience to feel the agony and the ecstasy of living life today here in the twenty-first century with these moving pop-country songs! Songs that sing about the blues and songs that expound the merits of good love! Passionate songs that will take you up on high! Ballads that really do speak to you about lost love! And country rock that will move the crowd to boogie! You'll be swept away as he fully engages the listener with each musical story so that you and your audience can relate to them in terms of your own life experiences! If you or your group want to record any of these songs or use them in live concerts you must register with ASCAP first as the Publisher! Geral John's ASCAP Registration #'s are displayed with each song! Geral John is the author of more than 140 books! ### The American Music Teacher

Trained in Russia, Zeitlin (1884–1930) was an accomplished composer, conductor, performer, and pedagogue. In writing Palestina, Zeitlin, as he had done during his entire career, was fulfilling the goals of the Society for Jewish Folk Music, which he joined in 1908 while still a student at the St. Petersburg Conservatory: to compose and perform works of art music on motivic material drawn from Jewish cantillation, liturgy, and folk song. In addition to employing two modes central to Jewish music and several Jewish tunes, in Palestina Zeitlin actually imitates the shofar calls heard in the synagogue before and during Rosh Hashanah and at the conclusion of Yom Kippur. This edition includes an extensive essay on the composer and on the themes and structure of Palestina, with insights into the Capitol Theatre and the role of music in picture palaces of this era.

The Best of Gera! John Pinault's Love Songs - Book #78

In Music in the Holocaust Shirli Gilbert provides the first large-scale, critical account of the role of music amongst communities imprisoned under Nazism. She documents a wide scope of musical activities, ranging from orchestras and chamber groups to choirs, theatres, communal sing-songs, and cabarets, in some of the most important internment centres in Nazi-occupied Europe, including Auschwitz and the Warsaw and Vilna ghettos. Gilbert is also concerned with exploring the ways in which music - particularly the many songs that were preserved - contribute to our broader understanding of the Holocaust and the experiences of its victims. Music in the Holocaust is, at its core, a social history, taking as its focus the lives of individuals and communities imprisoned under Nazism. Music opens a unique window on to the internal world of those communities, offering insight into how they understood, interpreted, and responded to their experiences at the time.

Through the first seven editions of this enduring text, A. Viola Mitchell shared her knowledge and skills with legions of educators, camp directors, and counselors who participated in the organized camp movement. This classic, highly regarded volume has now been thoroughly updated to provide a 21st-century view of the trends, philosophies, and practices of organized camping. The Eighth Edition retains the overarching emphasis on leadership skills and program activities and ideas, updating their treatment with the latest research on positive youth development and outcomes-based programming. New chapters discuss trends in organized camping, efforts to expand opportunities for camp participation, and strategies to increase physical activity among children and youth. Substantially revised topics include modern behavior management tools and techniques, leadership strategies, problem solving, group processes, and the importance of research and evaluation. Throughout, the authors infuse the discussion with a leave no trace conservation ethic that promotes ways to enjoy the outdoors in a responsible, sustainable manner. The essence of organized camping has remained the same throughout its 150-year history: democratic, group living in the outdoors supported by competent, well-trained leaders. The latest edition of Camp Counseling celebrates that essence in every chapter, illuminated by more than 120 new photographs as well as numerous illustrations and boxed exhibits. Moreover, extensive, annotated resource lists in every chapter provide countless opportunities to explore topics in greater depth.
