In The Implosion of Capitalism world-renowned political economist Samir Amin connects the key events of our times - financial crisis, Eurozone implosion, the emerging BRIC nations and the rise of political Islam - identifying them as symptoms of a profound systemic crisis. In light of these major crises and tensions, Amin updates and modifies the classical definitions of social classes, political parties, social movements and ideology. In doing so he exposes the reality of monopoly capitalism in its contemporary global form. In a bravura conclusion, Amin argues that the current capitalist system is not viable and that implosion is unavoidable. The Implosion of Capitalism makes clear the stark choices facing humanity - and the urgent need for a more humane global order.

Het is 1914. Thomas Maggs, de zoon van de plaatselijke kastelein, woont met zijn familie in een dorpje aan de kust van Suffolk. Het leven is rustig en wordt bepaald door de seizoenen, de visvangst en het boerenwerk. Tot op een dag een geheimzinnige Schot in het dorp arriveert. Mac - zo noemen de dorpingen hem als ze in het café over hem fluisteren - vertoont eigenaardig gedrag: hij trekt er op de vreemdste uren op uit om bloemen te bestuderen en tuurt vanaf het strand over de golven alsof hij naar een teken speurt. Mac is beter bekend als de architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh, en voor Thomas wordt hij al gauw een bron van fascinatie en verwondering. Juist als de vriendschap tussen Thomas en Mac begint op te bloeien, verklaart Engeland Duitsland de oorlog. De zomergasten verlaten het dorp en voor hen in de plaats komen regimenten soldaten op doortocht naar België. Naarmate het brute oorlogsgeweld zwaarder op de kustgemeenschap drukt, worden de dorpingen wantrouwender jegens Mac. In dit gevoelige, meeslepende verhaal over een onwaarschijnlijke vriendschap schetst Esther Freud een levendig portret van een gemeenschap aan het thuisfront tijdens de Eerste Wereldoorlog, en van een man die een van de briljantste en meest miskende kunstenaars van zijn generatie was.
