The Personal Is Political: the original feminist theory The paper, "The Personal Is Political," was originally published in Notes from the Second Year: Women's Liberation in 1970 and was widely reprinted and passed around the Movement and beyond in the next several years. I didn't know just how much it had gotten around until I did a Google search and found it being discussed in many different languages.

The Matter of Black Lives: Writing from The New Yorker Norman Bowie dates the birth of business ethics as November 1974, with the first conference in business ethics, which was held at the University of Kansas, and which resulted in the first anthology used in the new courses that started popping up thereafter in business ethics. 12 Whether one chooses that date or some other event, it is difficult to identify any previous
